

CALGARY MAYOR NAHEED NENSHI, WILL BE THE MOSAIC INSTITUTE'S 2017 'PEACE PATRON'

TORONTO, October 20, 2016 – Calgary Mayor Naheed Nenshi will be honoured as the 2017 'Peace Patron' at The Mosaic Institute's annual dinner, Monday, May 29 in Toronto. He will be the fourth Mosaic honouree joining Senator Murray Sinclair, the Hon. Louise Arbour and the Hon. Hugh Segal.

Mayor Naheed Nenshi
City of Calgary

As Calgary's 36th Mayor, Nenshi is serving his second term. He holds a B.Comm. (University of Calgary) and a Master's in Public Policy from the John F. Kennedy School of Government (Harvard University), where he studied as a Kennedy Fellow.

"I am privileged to be recognized by The Mosaic Institute as their 2017 Honorary Peace Patron. Joining past honourees Hugh Segal, Louise Arbour and Senator Murray Sinclair is a great honour," said Mayor Nenshi.

Said Executive Director Bernie M. Farber, "Mayor Nenshi is recognized as an outstanding leader, bringing positive change to Calgary through the strengthening of communities and encouraging a culture of citizen-focused improvement. As the 2014 recipient of the International World Mayor Award, his achievements have enriched Canada's social, cultural and economic fabric."

ABOUT THE MOSAIC INSTITUTE

Established in 2007 by Toronto entrepreneur Vahan Kololian as Canada's 'think and do tank' for Canadian inclusion, the Institute works to celebrate Canada and advance justice, promote peace and reduce conflict among diverse communities in Canada.

Contact:

David Eisenstadt / Atara Cadesky

tcgpr

deisenstadt@tcgpr.com / acadesky@tcgpr.com

416-696-9900 ext. 36 / 29