THE FELLOWSHIP

THE UofMOSAIC FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM IDENTIFIES AND EQUIPS UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS WITH TOOLS TO BECOME LEADERS IN CONFLICT RESOLUTION, INCLUSION, AND PLURALISM

The UofMosaic Fellowship Program activates potential by cultivating the conflict resolution, professional development, and global citizenship skills required by tomorrow's leaders.

Fellows are recruited individually from across Canada for a two-year Fellowship. Upon successful completion of the program, Fellows will be inducted as a Fellow of the Mosaic Institute of Canada (F.M.I.C.).

Fellows will:

- gain practical professional development and leadership training from industry leaders
- receive support to create change on campus
- join a national community of young thought leaders

PROGRAM COMPONENTS

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND LEADERSHIP TRAINING

Fellows will have access to a mix of independent and collaborative learning modules. Upon completion, fellows will be awarded a certificate indicating their areas of focus. In their second year, fellows will be introduced to subject-matter experts and industry leaders.

RESEARCH & PUBLICATION OPPORTUNITIES

The Mosaic Institute will publish research from each Fellow in an annual journal.

CAMPUS DIALOGUES THAT PROMOTE MOSAIC MISSION, VISION, AND VALUES

Fellows will coordinate a Mosaic Dialogue on campus designed to reduce conflict; such as a current policy issue affecting the local population; how an international conflict manifests on campus; or how a systemic issue is causing conflict in their community.

NATIONAL SYMPOSIUM

Attending a national symposium for young Canadians to present research and contribute to youth-led actions.

2019-2021 UOFMOSAIC FELLOWSHIP APPLICATION

Are you interested in peace? We are. The Mosaic Institute is a think-and-do tank, which brings together people, communities, and states, to strengthen pluralism and to resolve conflicts.

The UofMosaic Program is an individual 2-year fellowship that supports the mission of the Mosaic Institute by bringing together students from across Canada to share, listen, learn, and act to end conflict.

We apply our Mosaic Model of Dialogue to invest in youth to become the next generation of leaders in:

- ✓ inclusion
- ✓ pluralism
- ✓ intercultural understanding
- ✓ critical thinking
- ✓ openness
- ✓ empathy
- ✓ respectful dialogue
- ✓ self-awareness
- ✓ global citizenship
- ✓ interpersonal conflict management

The Fellowship is comprised of four components:

1. Professional development and leadership training focused on applying respectful dialogue and conflict resolution skills
2. Campus dialogues to reduce polarization and conflict among students
3. Research and publication opportunity for Fellows to be published
4. Joint youth conference with all Mosaic Institute youth program participants
